Flying into our Sustainable Future: How New Technology and the Infrastructure Bill are Shaping the Aviation Industry

Tuesday, April 12, 2022
7:00am-9:00am

City Club Los Angeles
555 S. Flower Street, 51st Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90071

We are in an era of many exciting advances in the aviation industry, from electric aircraft and hydrogen fuel to a focus on health and wellbeing. At the same time, airports and airlines are making significant efforts to decarbonize their operations and assets. The recently passed Infrastructure Bill provides opportunity for new projects to move forward, particularly those projects that include sustainable design. Learn from local airport authorities about how new technology and the Infrastructure Bill is helping their facility prepare for the future.
