Science & Technology, How do we build and renovate?

Tuesday, October 11, 2016
City Club Los Angeles

Tuesday, October 11, 2016
7:00am-9:00am

City Club Los Angeles
555 S. Flower Street, 51st Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90071

With the ongoing scare and spread of viruses like Ebola, Zika, and others, how do these threats to public health affect the biomedical research industry? This month's expert moderator and panelists will discuss how the industry is preparing for the renovation of existing laboratory space or the construction of new buildings to address the industry's needs and the public demands. Join us in October for this timely subject.
